PRICE AND SERVICE INFORMATION

Generally, all work carried out by this firm is charged on the basis of hourly rates. We will where possible provide you with an estimate ahead of commencing the work together with regular updates as a matter progresses.

EMPLOYMENT TRIBUNAL CLAIMS (INDIVIDUAL AND BUSINESS CUSTOMERS)

The Team

Please click here to meet our Employment Team members. We will ensure that your matter is handled by an appropriately qualified member of the team.

Unfair or Wrongful Dismissal Claims

Each claim is different and the overall cost will depend on multiple factors in particular the specific circumstances, any additional claims to be included e.g. discrimination, whistleblowing, the complexity of the issues, length of any tribunal hearing and whether Counsel is instructed to conduct the hearing.

Key Stages

The usual steps in a claim include:

- Bringing or resisting the claim
- Disclosure of evidence
- Preparing witness statements
- Attending the hearings
- Dealing with settlement, this could include attending judicial mediation

Typical Costs

- Our current hourly rates for this type of work (excluding VAT, payable at 20%) are:

Partner	£280-£335
Senior Associate	£240-£260
Associate	£210-£220
Assistant Solicitor	£170-£190
Trainee/Paralegal	£120-£140

- We will always discuss all funding options that are available to you at the outset including whether you have insurance cover.
- We will charge you “disbursements and expenses” in addition to our hourly charges for conducting the matter. Disbursements are costs that we need to pay to a third party e.g. for barristers’ fees. We will inform you of these costs before incurring them and will usually ask for payment on account.

Probate

We can advise on all areas of Wills, Probate and Administration of Estates. Each matter is individual and the costs and length of time to complete it will depend on multiple factors in particular the size of the estate, the number of beneficiaries, whether there was a Will, the type and location of the assets and any complicated tax issues.

Key Stages

The usual steps in a probate matter include:

- Identifying executors, administrators and beneficiaries
- Preparing and completing the application for Probate
- Dealing with any relevant HMRC forms
- Collecting and distributing the assets in the estate

We will provide an estimate of how long it will take to complete the matter after an initial review of the estate, the Will and other relevant issues.

Typical Costs

- Our current hourly rates for this type of work (excluding VAT, payable at 20%) are:

Partner	£280-£335
Senior Associate	£240-£260
Associate	£210-£220
Assistant Solicitor	£170-£190
Trainee/Paralegal	£120-£140

- We will charge you “disbursements and expenses” in addition to our hourly charges for conducting the matter. Disbursements are costs that we need to pay to a third party e.g. the Probate Registry. We will inform you of these costs before incurring them and will usually ask for payment on account.
- For all matters we will provide an estimate of our fees at the outset and will provide regular updates in respect of costs.
